First stop, board the Chautauqua Belle, and experience a steamship adventure. Enjoy a historical tour and learn about the history of Chautauqua on this narrated cruise. Relax as you savor Chicken BBQ for lunch on the Belle (picnic lunch also available).

After lunch stop at the Brick Village Gourmet. This is a factory tour where local native, Chef Tim Murphy's line of salad dressings, jams, salsas, and seasonings are manufactured. You will have the opportunity to watch through a viewing window and see how these products are produced. Chef Murphy will explain how the product line was developed. Samples will be available. Next Chef will give a dessert demonstration and of course dessert samples provide a sweet finish to this stop.

Last stop of the day offers more sweet treats and shopping at Webb's Candy Factory and Gifts. Webb's Candies is famous for making goat's milk fudge, molasses sponge and peanut butter squares. All candies are made by hand using the old fashioned copper kettle method. The gift shop features a wide variety of gift items including Chautauqua souvenirs.
